An interview with Miss Kwok
By 6A Cherry Ng
Miss Kwok is one of the English teachers in our school. When she was a primary school pupil, she hated English very much. However, she liked helping classmates with their homework. When she was in Form 5, she decided to become a teacher.
When she became a teacher, she taught many subjects such as Mathematics, General Studies, Chinese, Putonghua and I.T. She was not an English teacher.
When she came to Chung Sing School, she changed to become an English teacher. It was because our previous principal invited her to teach English.
Now, she loves teaching English very much. She is so happy to teach the hard-working students. She thinks teaching English is a big challenge and she enjoys it very much.
